

NEWS & NOTES

■ A lushly illustrated new volume, American Eagle: A Visual History of Our National Emblem (Goff Books: $75, cloth), explores the eagle through an array of objects, from a brass button from one of George Washington's presidential inaugurations to original prints by John James Audubon and Andy Warhol. The objects are part of the Preston Cook Collection of 25,000 eagle objects that will be housed and displayed in a major expansion currently underway at the National Eagle Center in Wabasha. Learn more at americaneaglecollection.com.

■ Split Rock Lighthouse's longest-serving keeper, Lee Radzak, retires in April 2019 after 36 years in the role